

Philemon: Every Good Thing In Us

“And I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective for the full knowledge of every good thing that is in us for the sake of Christ.” Philemon 6 (ESV)

Are there blessings in Christ that are _____ to us?

The Sharing Of Your Faith

A. Paul's prayer:

1. 1:4-6 - The _____ of their faith would lead to _____ knowledge of every _____ thing in them for Christ's sake.
 2. koinonia doesn't point to _____, but to _____ (as the NIV translates it).
 3. 1:17 - Did Philemon regard Paul as his _____ (from koinos).
 4. Philemon's partnership in the faith illustrated:
 - a. 1:2 - The _____ met in his _____.
 - b. 1:5 - He had shown _____ and _____ to the saints.
 - c. 1:7 - He had _____ the hearts of the _____.
 - d. 1:19 - He _____ himself to Paul.
 - e. 1:17 - The appeal: _____ Onesimus as you would me.
 - f. 1:20 - Paul asked that he _____ my _____.
- B. 1:6 - When his faith is _____, Philemon will have full _____ of every _____ thing "in us".

Every Good Thing That Is In Us

A. Good things mentioned in this letter:

1. 1:1,2 - _____ in Christ
 2. 1:3 - _____ and _____ from the Lord
 3. 1:4,25 - The ability to _____ to God
 4. 1:7 - Much _____ and _____ from relationships
 5. 1:10 - Being able to bring others to _____
 6. 1:16 - A change in status from _____ to _____.
 7. 1:20 - Knowing others can _____ our _____
 8. 1:22 - Knowing things can be _____ through _____
- B. More than we realize:
1. Ephesians 1:15-19 - Paul prayed that the _____ of their hearts might be _____ to see _____.
 2. Ephesians 3:20 - God can do _____ than we _____.
 3. Romans 12:2 - God's will is _____, _____, _____.

2 Corinthians 13:5 - Philemon leads us to _____ ourselves.

Central Church of Christ, Johnson City, Tennessee, November 24, 2019, p.m.