

The Limits Of God's Mercy

"For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, declares the Lord." Isaiah 55:8, English Standard Version

One who says "I've _____ it" has reached their _____.

The Incredible Vastness Of God's Mercy

- A. Isaiah 55:8 - We must not _____ God by our experience of dealing with _____. People rarely show great _____.
- B. The vastness of God's mercy is stated often:
 1. 2 Samuel 12:13 - _____ confessed that he had _____ against the _____. God didn't put David on _____.
 2. Psalm 103:8-12 - God doesn't _____ with us according to our _____. He _____ our transgressions from us.
 3. Jeremiah 31:33,34 - In the _____ covenant God would _____ their sins no _____.
 4. Ephesians 1:3,7 - _____ spiritual blessing is in _____. One of those is the forgiveness of our _____.
 5. Acts 22:16 - It is truly _____ grace that we can hope to _____ away our sins in the simple act of _____.

Are There Limits To God's Mercy?

- A. Hosea 1:6 - Naming this child " _____ " showed that God had reached His limit with _____.
- B. Are there limits to God's mercy for us?
 1. Matthew 12:31 - If we _____ the _____ we will _____ be forgiven.
 2. Romans 1:24,26,28 - God " _____ them _____ " as they went deeper into _____.
 3. Acts 8:22 - A Christian who sins must _____ of their wickedness and _____ for forgiveness.
 4. Hebrews 6:4-6 - It is _____ for some to be restored to _____ when they _____ away.
 5. Hebrews 10:26,29 - The problem: Some go on _____ _____ . They _____ the Son of God!
- C. By refusing to _____ ourselves, we fall _____ the limits of God's mercy.

Hosea 2:23 - Once they _____ back to Him, God would show _____ to " _____ ". He wants to forgive!

Central Church of Christ, Johnson City, Tennessee, July 11, 2021, a.m.