

Rebuilding Our Love For Neighbors

“Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law.” 1 John 4:20, English Standard Version

Our relationship with _____ is often compared to a _____.

Do We Really Love God – Or Are We Missing Something?

- A. Luke 10 – How to know we are showing love to God:
1. 10:25-28 – Loving one’s _____ is necessary for those who want to _____ eternal life.
 2. Carson: “This parable _____ one’s neighbor, and thus _____ how to love God.”
 3. 1 John 4:20,21 – Can we _____ God while we _____ our _____?
 4. 10:29 – When the _____ asked “_____ is my neighbor?” Jesus told the _____.
- B. Romans 13:8 – What we _____ to each other is _____.

Steps To Rebuilding Our Love For Our Neighbors

A. Open our eyes:

1. 10:33 – He had to _____ the man in order to _____ him.
2. Luke 7:44 – Did Simon truly _____ the _____? Not in the same way that _____ saw her.
3. John 4:35 – “... see that the _____ are _____ for harvest.”
4. Proverbs 21:13 – Don’t _____ your ears to _____ for help!

B. Have the mind and heart of Christ:

1. 10:33 – The Samaritan had _____ after he _____.
2. Mark 6:34 – When Jesus _____ the crowds, He had _____ on them and helped them.
3. Philippians 2:4,5 – How can we look to the _____ of others? By having the _____ of _____.

C. Be the feet and hands of Christ:

1. 10:34,35 – The Samaritan _____ his resources to the needs of the victim.
2. 1 Peter 4:10 – We each have a _____; let us _____ it!
3. Titus 3:14 – We must _____ to _____ ourselves to _____.

“Each day I’ll _____ a golden _____ by _____ those who are in need.” (William Golden, 1918)

Central Church of Christ, Johnson City, Tennessee, October 3, 2021, a.m.