

Parables For Sinners: Two Debtors

"For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost." Luke 19:10, ESV

Through our sins we have _____. Is there any hope for _____?

Luke 7: The Parable Of The Two Debtors In Context

- A. 7:40-42a – One debtor owed _____ denarii, and the other owed _____. Neither could _____, and both debts were _____.
- B. The setting in which Jesus told this parable:
1. 7:36-38 – While dining with a _____, a woman who was a _____ began to _____ and to _____ Jesus' feet.
 2. 7:39 – Simon made a _____ about Jesus, that He could not be a _____. Otherwise He would know what kind of woman this was (and not let her _____ Him)!
 3. 7:42b-50 – Which debtor _____ the moneylender most? The one for whom he _____ the _____ debt. Jesus saw this as the motivation for what the _____ was doing, for she had been _____ of _____.
- C. Bock notes "the potential for divine _____ through _____ and faith." That's why Jesus came.

Hope For Sinners In Jesus Christ

- A. Jesus, friend of sinners:
1. Matthew 9:9-13 – A _____ doesn't come for those who are _____, but for those who are _____.
 2. Luke 19:5-7,9-10 – Why would Jesus be the _____ of a man who is a _____? Jesus came to _____ and to _____ the _____.
 3. Matthew 21:28-32 – The "sinners" would _____ the kingdom of God ahead of the _____, who did not _____ their minds and _____ John.
 4. Luke 15:32 – God _____ and is _____ when "sinners" come home!
- B. Bock: "Do we see _____ for who they have _____ or for what _____ can _____ of them?"
- C. Revelation 3:17 – Spiritual _____ is a greater tragedy than moral _____; it keeps us from seeing our _____.

Did this woman ever _____ to her sin? If her _____ of Jesus continued, she would conquer her past _____.

Central Church of Christ, Johnson City, Tennessee, June 19, 2022, p.m..