

These Things God Hates

"Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall." 1
Corinthians 10:12 (English Standard Version)

If we know of things God _____, shouldn't we _____ those?

Zechariah: A Call To Genuinely Seek God

- A. 8:16,17 - Here God gives both _____ and _____ admonitions. The latter represent things God _____.
- B. A consideration of the larger context of this passage:
1. 7:3 - A question was posed to the _____: Should we continue observing the _____? These people had been in _____ for the past _____ years.
 2. 7:4-6 - Were the _____ for _____, or merely doing it because they were being _____?
 3. 7:7,12-14 - The earlier generation _____ the former _____. That's why they had been _____.
 4. 5:1-4 - Two sins are highlighted: Those who _____, and those who _____ falsely by God's _____. Sins against _____ and against their _____.
 5. 8:17 - Those _____ of sin are highlighted in this verse. They are what God _____.

How Zechariah's Prophecy Applies To Us

- A. 1 Corinthians 10:11,12 - The example of _____ was _____ down for our _____.
- B. The continuing relevance of Zechariah's prophecy:
1. 8:16,17 - Is there anything here that is _____? Or are these _____ principles?
 2. Matthew 22:37-40 - The two _____ commands point to our _____ for God and for our _____.
 3. Psalm 97:10 - If we _____ God, then we will also _____ evil.
 4. Psalm 119:104 - But can we _____ what God hates if we don't consider His _____?
- 1 Thessalonians 1:10, 5:9 - The _____ of God is real and to be feared. But He sent _____ to _____ us from it.

Central Church of Christ, Johnson City, Tennessee, March 26, 2017, a.m.