

How Satan Lies

"But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your thoughts will be led astray ..." 2 Corinthians 11:3, English Standard Version

John 8:44 - _____, like Stanley, tries to sell us _____ oil!

Satan Sometimes Lies Directly

- A. If we know the _____ of _____, we can spot such lies easily. But not all know the truth.
- B. Satan will oppose God's truth:
 - 1. Genesis 3:1-5 - Satan directly _____ what God had told _____; "you will _____ surely _____."
 - 2. Acts 13:6-8 - This man of _____ wanted to know the gospel, but Elymas _____ what Paul taught.
 - 3. Deuteronomy 18:20 - Some will claim to _____ for God, but God has not _____ them to _____.

Satan Sometimes Lies By Twisting Scripture

- A. Satan will twist what God has said:
 - 1. Matthew 4:5-7 - Satan _____ Scripture - but not _____ of what God had said.
 - 2. Galatians 1:8; 2:14 - Paul _____ some who taught the gospel - but _____ teachings to it. Their _____ was not in _____ with the gospel.
 - 3. 2 Peter 3:16 - Some will _____ the Scripture to their own _____.
- B. Like some _____, altering the directions can be _____. Do we need _____ - _____ packaging?

Satan Sometimes Lies By Deception

- A. This usually comes through people we _____. We don't bother to check out the details of what they're telling us.
- B. Satan is a master deceiver:
 - 1. Luke 22:3,4; Matthew 27:3 - Was _____ deceived? It appears he didn't think Jesus would be _____.
 - 2. 2 Corinthians 11:3 - Satan will lead some _____ from a _____ and pure _____ to Christ.
 - 3. 2 Corinthians 11:12-15 - Some appear to be _____ of Christ - but they're _____ of Satan.

Mark 4:15 - Will Satan _____ away this _____ we've heard?

Central Church of Christ, Johnson City, Tennessee, June 11, 2017, p.m.