

Honoring God With Common Voices

*"God is spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."
John 4:24, English Standard Version*

We want to _____ God for all He has done for us, but how?

We Honor God When We Speak One Message

A. Christian unity honors God:

1. Romans 15:5,6 – We are to be in _____ with one another and _____ God with _____ voice.
 2. John 17:20,21 - _____ prayed that His followers _____ be _____, just as He and the _____ were one.
 3. 1 Corinthians 1:10 – There should be no _____ among Christ's followers, but that we have the _____ mind.
- B. In 1985, Quincy Jones instructed many celebrities to "Check your _____ at the door." If not, they wouldn't work together.

We Honor God When We Sing His Praises

A. Singing as a command for Christians:

1. Colossians 3:16 – Sing _____ with _____ in your _____ to God.
 2. Ephesians 5:19 – We are to make _____ to the _____ with our _____.
 3. 1 Corinthians 14:12,15 – Strive to _____ in _____ up the _____. One way to do that is by _____.
- B. Singing to God with common voices honors Him:
1. James 2:5,6a – Do we _____ the "poor" by showing preferences for the _____ (in voice)?
 2. Leviticus 12:8 – Provisions were made for the _____, so that all could offer _____ to the Lord.
 3. Mark 14:8 – "She has _____ what she _____."
 4. Romans 14:4 – Don't _____ another person's _____.
- C. John 4:23,24 – God is _____ true _____, those who worship in _____ and _____.

Luke 18:14 – The man whom most hated went home _____.
Let us remember that God is the "_____" of our worship;
our goal is to _____ Him, not ourselves.

Tim Hall, Central Church of Christ, Johnson City, Tennessee, June 22, 2025, a.m.